Cary Pop Warner Code of Ethics

I hereby pledge to live up to the ideals of the Cary Pop Warner program by following the Cary Pop Warner Code of Ethics:

- I agree to participate in any certification program Cary Pop Warner deems necessary for the coaching staff.
- I will place the emotional and physical well-being of my participants ahead of a personal desire to win.
- I will treat each player as an individual, remembering the large range of emotional and physical development for the same age group.
- I will do my best to provide a safe playing situation for my participants.
- I promise to review and practice basic first aid principles needed to treat the injuries of my participants.
- I will do my best to organize practices that are fun and challenging for all my participants.
- I will lead by example in demonstrating fair play and sportsmanship to all my participants.
- I will be knowledgeable in the rules, and I will teach these rules to my participants.
- I will use those coaching techniques appropriate for all of the skills that I teach.
- I will remember that I am a youth sports coach, and that the game is for the children and not adults.

I understand that as a coach in the Cary Pop Warner organization, I am a volunteer of the organization for the 2010 Pop Warner football season only. I am to follow all league policies and procedures as defined by Cary Pop Warner Football and Cheerleading, the Cary Pop Warner commissioner/cheer director, the Consolidated Football Federation and the National Pop Warner Little Scholars rulebook. At all league practices, games and events, I, as a Cary Pop Warner coach, will act as a positive role model to all association members and participants. I will display good sportsmanship, honor, integrity, and the desire to win. Additionally, I will always consider the welfare, enjoyment and safety of the association's participants as my first priority at all times.
